ORDER MODIFYING TERMS OF PROBATION

AND NOW, this 13th day of November, 2020, as stated on the record during the November 12, 2020, hearing, the Court hereby ORDERS that, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3563(c) and Fed. R. Crim. P. 32.1(c), and upon consideration of the status reports submitted by the Probation Office, the positions of the parties and the Probation Office, and the sentencing factors set forth in 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a), the terms of Mr. Somerville's 36-month period of probation shall be modified as follows:

(1)   Mr. Somerville's 36-month term of home detention shall be reduced to a 180-day term of home detention, inclusive of all time Mr. Somerville has served on home detention to date. All terms of home detention remain unchanged.

(2)   Upon completion of the 180-day term of home detention, Mr. Somerville shall be placed on a 180-day curfew period, during which he shall be restricted to his residence every day from 12:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. except as approved by the probation officer. Mr. Somerville shall be subject to location monitoring and the use of location monitoring technology during all or some of the 180-day curfew period. The location monitoring technology requirement, i.e., Radio Frequency (RF), Global Positioning System (GPS), Voice Recognition, or Virtual Supervision Monitoring, is at the discretion of the probation officer. Mr. Somerville shall continue to comply with the rules of
